Part 4. Read the following passage and write A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. (1.0 pt)

Dream Job

Mark Harris works for a famous toy company. He designs toy cars. When he started, he was the only man in the design department. He leads a team of 35 designers now.

Mark became interested in cars when he was a teenager. One day, his father gave him a car magazine. After that, Mark loved cars. He studied car design at university and then worked for a car company. Later, a friend invited him to work for a toy company. Mark's favourite toy car is the Silver Sunrise. It was special because it looked more like a real car than older models. The wheels were under the body, so the car looked better although it was not as good on a race track.

Now Mark is over 60 years old and will retire soon. He enjoys his job and would like to work part-time after retirement.

17. The passage is mainly about _____.
A. a man who designs toy cars B. how to become a university teacher
C. different kinds of toy companies D. the history of real cars

20. Which of the following is TRUE about Mark Harris?
A. He still works alone in the design department. B. The Silver Sunrise was his first toy car.
C. He studied toy design at university. D. He would like to work part-time after he retires.

Part 5. Read the following passage and decide if the statements that follow are TRUE (T) or FALSE (F). (1.0 pt)

Healthy living is very important for teenagers because it helps them grow physically and mentally. A healthy lifestyle includes eating nutritious food, exercising regularly, and getting enough sleep. Teenagers should eat plenty of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, and protein-rich foods instead of consuming too much fast food or sugary drinks. Regular physical activity, such as cycling, swimming, or playing sports, can improve fitness and reduce stress. In addition, sleep is essential because it allows the body and brain to recover after a busy day. Experts recommend that teenagers get at least eight hours of sleep each night. Another important habit is limiting screen time and spending more time outdoors with friends and family. Although maintaining healthy habits may seem difficult at first, the long-term benefits are significant. Teenagers who live healthily often have more energy, better concentration, and a lower risk of developing health problems in the future.

21. Teenagers should avoid consuming too much fast food and sugary drinks to live healthily. T
22. According to experts, teenagers get less than eight hours of sleep each night. F
